

Pittsburgh Partnership
Youth Workforce Development Programs - July 1, 2011 through June 30, 2012

	Organization	Program Title	Program Description	Contact Information
In-School Programs	Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation	In-School Youth Employment Program	The program offers quality paid work experience in various fields to East End Pittsburgh high school students and residents. Support services and academic and career enrichment activities through organizational and programmatic collaborations are key components to aid high school students successes.	Rick Flanagan or Phone: 412-441-9833 e-mail: rflang@aol.com Assessment/Program Contact: Mary Bray 412-363-1910 e-mail: Mary Bray mary.bray34@yahoo.com	5321 Penn Ave. Pittsburgh, PA 15224
	Boys & Girls Clubs of Western Pennsylvania, The	At Your Service	The Boys & Girls Clubs of Western PA's Youth Enterprise Zone employs at-risk, in-school City youth in its 7 social ventures in Lawrenceville. Students will receive tutoring while pursuing certification in Customer Service in the Business and Financial services industry cluster.	Dr. Terri Henderson Phone: 412-782-5710 e-mail: t_henderson@bgcwpa.org Assessment/Program Contact: Same	5432 Butler St. Pittsburgh, PA 15201
	Life's Work of Western PA	CITY Youth Employment	The Life's Work CITY Project provides students, ages 18-21, who experience mental health challenges, with opportunities similar to those of their non-disabled peers. The main objective for these students is to become job ready and/or gain employment and certifications.	Mindy Hockensmith Phone: 412-471-2600 e-mail: mhockensmith@lifesworkwpa.org Assessment/Program Contact: Same	1323 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15219
	Pittsburgh Public Schools Start On Success	Pittsburgh Public Schools Start On Success	Start On Success is a four-year transition to employment program for students with disabilities at eight Pittsburgh Public High Schools. Core components consist of a transition class and a paid internship with local universities, hospitals and businesses.	Ashley McFall Phone: 412-323-4078 e-mail: kmcfall1@pghboe.net Assessment/Program Contact: Same (Alternate Program Contact: Nikki Economou Economou, 412-323-4078 neconomou1@pghboe.net)	Office: 2140 Sawmill Run Blvd. Pittsburgh, PA 15210 Program: Various locations - Call for Address
	Bloomfield-Garfield Corporation	Out-of-School Youth Employment Program	The program offers quality paid work experience in various fields to Pittsburgh out-of-school youth. Occupational skills, Microsoft Office Specialist Credentialing, and other recognized certification and credentialing is provided. Support services are provided to currently enrolled youth as well as those who have completed the program.	Rick Flanagan Phone: 412-441-9833 e-mail: rflang@aol.com.com Assessment/Program Contact: Mike Baltzer, 412-441-9833, email: michael.charles.baltzer@gmail.com	5321 Penn Ave., Pittsburgh, PA 15224

Pittsburgh Partnership
Youth Workforce Development Programs - July 1, 2011 through June 30, 2012

	Organization	Program Title	Program Description	Contact Information
Out-of-School Programs	Communities In Schools Of Pittsburgh-Allegheny County	CIS Pittsburgh Diploma Plus Training Program	CIS Pittsburgh Diploma Plus Training Program offers high school dropouts a second chance to earn a diploma from their home high school and gain work readiness training, employment counseling, emotional and behavioral support, and cognitive and perceptual skills development.	Jesse Sprajcar Phone: 412-661-8751 e-mail: jsprajcar@cispac.org Assessment/Program Contact: Same	6435 Frankstown Ave., Pittsburgh, PA 15206
	Hill House Association	Hill House Out Of School Youth	The Hill House City Out-Of-School Youth Program combines academic preparation, work readiness classes and intensive case management to prepare City residents (17-21 years) for their GED, to obtain professional certifications and to become employed.	Willie Slaughter Phone: 412-392-4455 e-mail: wslaughter@hillhouse.org Assessment/Program Contact: Ange'l Hunter, 412-392-4453; email: ahunter@hillhouse.org	1835 Centre Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA 15219
	PHASE 4 Learning Center, Inc.	P4LC Pittsburgh High School Diploma & Diploma Retrieval Programs	The P4LC programs provide out-of-school youth and school dropouts with an alternative opportunity to earn their home district diploma. Students are prepared with transferable employment skills, to enter the work force, seek education, or enlist in the military.	Cathy Mickolay Phone: 412-924-0053 or 412-924-9004 e-mail: cfmickolay@yahoo.com Program Contact: Same	5854 Baum Blvd, Pittsburgh, PA 15206
System-Wide Services	Eastside Neighborhood Employment Center	YouthLINK	The YouthLINK East program will coordinate youth employment and training initiatives for East End youth job seekers and youth who are transitioning from training programs to employment. YouthLINK will provide an enhanced job search experience and core CareerLink services to all interested youth, while expanding the capacity of the CareerLink to serve more City of Pittsburgh residents.	Rick Flanagan Phone: 412-362-8580 e-mail: eastsideyouthlink@gmail.com	5321 Penn Ave., Pittsburgh, PA 15224
	Goodwill of Southwestern Pennsylvania	YouthLINK	The YouthLINK South program will coordinate youth employment and training initiatives for Southside youth job seekers and all youth who are transitioning from training programs to employment. YouthLINK will provide an enhanced job search experience and core CareerLink services to all interested youth, while expanding the capacity of the CareerLink to serve more City of Pittsburgh residents.	Tiffanee Haywood Phone: 412-481-9005 e-mail: youthlink@goodwillswpa.org	2600 East Carson St., Pittsburgh, PA 15203
	Goodwill of Southwestern Pennsylvania (formerly Goodwill Industries of Pittsburgh)	Assessment	Goodwill provides a System-wide assessment of all youth involved in City of Pittsburgh supported workforce development programs, using the CASAS Assessment System. This service is only available to currently contracted programs.	Jen Hemme Phone: 412-390-2293 e-mail: jen.hemme@goodwillswpa.org	2600 East Carson St., Pittsburgh, PA 15203

Pittsburgh Partnership
Youth Workforce Development Programs - July 1, 2011 through June 30, 2012

	Organization	Program Title	Program Description	Contact Information
Contextual Learning Programs	Bloomfield Garfield Corporation	Community WORKS	Community Works is a community-driven youth employment program, where employment is contingent on school-based academic achievement and participation in after-school academic programming. These activities occur in contextual learning environments, connecting the classroom to practical experience.	Rick Flanagan Phone: 412-362-8580 e-mail: rflanag@aol.com Assessment/Program Contact: Mary Bray 412-363-1910 mary.bray34@yahoo.com	5321 Penn Ave., Pittsburgh, PA 15224
	Student Conservation Association, Inc., The	Conservation Career Exploration Project 2008-2009	The SCA manages a year-round Conservation Career Exploration Project (CCEP) for in-school youth, offering a multi-tiered educational and conservation service-learning curriculum that equips youth with work skills and supports academic achievement. Students are provided actual job experience in the conservation field and "green" industries. Students are guided on a "green" approach to career exploration.	Nancy Schaeffer Phone: 412-325-1851 e-mail: Nancy Schaefer nschaefer@thesca.org Assessment/Program Contact: Same	239 Fourth Ave., Pittsburgh, PA 15222

Pittsburgh Partnership Contacts

Tiara Flowers	412-552-7072
Bill Thomas	412-552-7024